HARDING RECEIVES INVITATION FROM MEXICAN REPUBLIC

Invitation is Extended By E. L. Torres for Government

MAY MAKE STOP AT VERA CRUZ

(By The Associated Press)

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, Nov. 16.—An earnest invitation from Mexican officials to go into Mexico has been taken under advisement by President-elect Harding.

Should he accept his visit probably will be limited to a short stop at Vera Cruz on his way to the canal zone.

He has been asked to go to Mexico City, but is understood to consider so extensive a trip impossible because of other engagements.

The invitation was brought here by E. L. Torres, who said in urging its acceptance he spoke for the Mexican foreign office and for General Obregon. In an hour's conference with the senator who sispending the last day of his Texas vacation, Mr. Torres made a plea that the senator be present at Obregon's inauguratio nin Mexico, Nov. 30.

Mr. Harding is represented by his friends as weighing carefully two considerations before deciding. It is declared he is anxious to take every step to cement relations between the two republics but that on the other hand he is determined to do nothing that might be construed as an international impropriety. He has told his friends that if he sets foot on any foreign country during his trip he will do so solely as a private citizen.

Beside remains the question of whether the arrangements already made can be modified. He leaves here tomorrow at 10 a. m., and will sail from New Orleans Thursday afternoon.

Talk Was Most Friendly.

Senator A. B. Fall of New Mexico, chairman of the senate Mexican affairs was present at the conference between the Mexican envoy and Mr. Harding. Mr. Fall said the talk had been a most friendly one and that it was his undertsanding that an effort would be made to change the sailing schedule to permit a short stop at Vera Cruz or some other main port. Senator Harding devoted some time today to his New Orleans speech and received a formal call from Govern Hobby.

In describing the talk between Mr. Harding and Mr. Torres, Senator Fall said the invitation contemplated that the president-elect should go into the territory as "the guest of the Mexican republic."

"Senator Harding assured Mr. Torres it would give him the greatest pleasure and delight to accept his invitation, provided it would be arranged as to date and steamship movements without interefering with the previously arranged itinerary,' Mr. Fall said.

"He expressed himself as deeply appreciating and fully reciprocating the sentiment of friendliness which were attested by the invitation and the cordial manner of the presentation, he suggested it would hardly be possible for him to make the trip into the interior of Mexico, so far as the City of Mexico, or to be a guest at the inauguration of General Obregon but he added, he would consider arrangements to have the steamer on which the Harding party will travel to the canal zone touch at some Mexican port probably Vera Cruz which would be a great pleasure to him but he could give no definite assurances about such a modification of plans.'

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—A blanket invitation to every citizen having knowledge of irregularity or misconduct on the part of any agent, employe or officer of the war department to submit such evidence for investigation was issued today by Secretary Baker in reply to criticisms of the surplus porperty division appearing in a New York newspaper. The secretary's statement pledged thoro inquiry.

Declaring that the particular articles referred to charge that the war department bought too many supplies and that irregularities favoritism and profiteering have characterized the disposal of surplus stocks, the statement emphatically denied both allegations.

Supplies were bought, it said, no the basis of an expected duration of the war.

American Army Large.

"Had the campaign of 1919 been necessary,' it said, "the American army would have been greater in numbers than the combined French and British armies in France."

Rapid demobilization, the statement continued "left a vast accumulation of material, which, if dumped on the market would have resulted in widesperad unemployment and the economic condition of the country prostrated."

"The policies which were pursued encouraged the resumption of industry," it added.

Total appropriations for the war department from April 6, 1917 to June 30, 1920 were approximately $25,500,000,000 of $16,100,000,000 was expended $7,800,000,000 turned back to the treasury, the statement said. MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE SUBJECT FOR DISCUSSION

Women Voters Would Make All State Laws Uniform

MRS. CATT SPEAKS OF COTE DELIVERY

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 16—Divorce motherhood, child hygiene, woman labor and subjects pertinent to the virility of the race were discussed today at the final session of the convention of the National League of women voters, second region.

Uniform marriage and divorce laws for all states were urged by Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch of Chicago. She deplored the nullification of effective regulations in some states resulting from laxity in others, making evasions, she declared, only a matter of railway journey.

She suggested also joint guardianship of children and appointment of women on state law commissions.

Miss Marry McDowell, Chicago asserted 39 percent of all women workers were under 21 years.

Mrs. Joseph F. Baker of Boston proposed a "Magna chata of child hood" thru codification of existing child welfare laws.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt spoke on the alleged vote "delivery" in the recent election, charging women voters had been "doubled crossed" in a New York "governorship-senatorship bargain."

She said women voters had been told to vote "on the straight ticket" while male voters were told to sacrifice party tickets.

According to Mrs. Catt women of one party were supposed to offset the women of the other party leaving the men free to put over the bargain."

IOWA FARMERS USE OWN JUDGEMENT IN SELLING CROPS

Bankers Say They Have Gone Limit in Financing

AMES MAN MAKES MASTER SPEECH

(By The Associated Press)

WATERLOO, Iowa, Nov. 16—That the farmers of Iowa would use their own judgment in disposing of the products of their farms seemed to be the general opinion of the agricultural men of the state upon leaving the meeting of farmers and bankers held here today. Bankers declared they had gone the limit in financing the farmers of the state and recommended the selling of farm products to help liquidate their obligations. About 500 bankers and tillers of the soil went into session at 9 a. m., today with the avowed purpose of seeking some way to overcome the difficulties in which the farmer finds himself at present, owing to falling prices and scarcity of credits.

W. A. Heath, chairman of the federal reserve bank, Chicago was a guest of the Iowa Bankers Association and gave a brief talk late in the day.

Makes Leading Speech

The leading speech for the farmers was made by E. H. Cunningham, secretary of the Farm Bureau Federation, Ames, Iowa. Mr. Cunningham told of the burden being borne by the farmers of the state of the cost of production, of the products of the the farm and how the farmer who was paying high rentals or those who had made a small payment on their farms purchased recently were facing bankruptcy because of the present trend of prices.

Mr. Cunningham quoted figures to show that it cost the Iowa farmer 75 cents to produce a bushel of oats and said the farmers were hauling it away for 30 cents. He said every bushel of corn cost $1 to produce while the farmer was forced to sell at sixty cents. He said in part:

"These figures will tend to show beyond a doubt what will happen to the farmer who is paying high rentals or the man who made a small payment on his farm recently purchased."

He advised the farmers to sit tight on the lid until the grain gets somewhere near the price of production. He also stated the farmers of the state were willing to assume some of the loss but did not deem it their duty to shoulder the entire responsibility of bringing prices back to normal.

DENY COMMITTEE CONTEMPLATED ANY BIG WHEAT COMBINE

Any Marketing Plan Proposed Must Protect Public

MUST STABILIZE GRAIN PRICES

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—On behalf of the farmers' marketing committee of 17, S. C. V. Gregory, editor of a farm journal, today issued a statement denying that the committee had adopted any plan to market wheat. Recent reports had said the committee was about to float a giant wheat combine.

"The question of handling the grain crop of 1921 thru a 'combine' or of contracting with growers to deliver their crops to such a 'combine' for from five to seven years has never been discussed and no proposal that the government be made a party to any wheat 'combine' has been made,' he said.

Must Safeguard Public.

"The committee realizes that the public must not be asked to pay inflated prices for grain, and in any plan of grain marketing that may be proposed, interests of the public will be safeguarded. Unstable prices add to the farmers' expenses and increase the cost of food to the consumer. If some means can be found to keep grain prices on a fairly stable basis both the producing and handling costs will be reduced and both producer and consumer wil benefit.

"Unrestricted speculation in grain benefits no one but the speculator. The elimination of undue speculation will benefit the consumer as much as the producer.

"The committee believes too, that any drop in wheat prices should be passed on to the consumer as quickly as possible and that there is something wrong in a distributing system that compels Chicago consumers to pay war prices for bread when wheat is selling for more than a dollar below war levels. It believes there is something wrong, too, when three or four cents worth of wheat sells for 13 cents in the form of bread."

BELIEVE WOMEN WERE THROWN FROM CAR

This is Belief of Police in Mystery of Actresses' Deaths—Chauffeur Tells of Taking Women and Two Men on Joy Ride.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—Police tonight believed they had found a solution to the deaths of Marie Ramey and Lillian Thompson, actresses, whose bodies were found Sunday in Grant Park. William Harris, a chauffeur, surrendered and told the police he drove the women and two men on a joyride Saturday night and that when the women became boisterous they were taken to Grant Park and thrown out.

Police said they believed the deaths were due to excessive drinking of home made whiskey and to exposure. They said Harris' story indicated the women were not in condition to help themselves.

Bruises found on the bodies were said by Harris to the police to have been inflicted when the women resisted an attack by their companions.

The two men with the actresses on the joy ride in Harris' automobile were arrested late today. According to the police, they said they "picked up" the actresses early in the evening and took them on a round of the cabarets. Later the police quoted the men as saying they left the women with Harris in his machine. They denied any brutality. Their names were not divulged.

After chemists who examined the bodies had reported to Chief of Detectives Hughes he announced that he believed "alcohol and exposure were the only causes of the deaths."

MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT ARE LEFT IN WEATHER

Engineer Says That Millions Are Lost by Such Methods

BOLOGNA COSTS MORE THAN VEAL

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Machinery and shipbuilding equipment valued at millions of dollars was left in the open to deteriorate in value, months after plants were closed, Paul H. MacNeil, a former resident engineer of the shipping board in the South Atlantic district testified today before the Walsh investigating committee. MacNeil said he was stationed at Savannah and had five men under his supervision. Just wht his own authority was he did not know, he testified, but he said he assumed a great deal in the endeavor to straighten out tangles.

He said the pards were well organized, "better perhaps than was the emergency fleet forces for they generally could get the better of the government organization."

Speaking of the National Shipbuilding company, the witness said work there had shut down previous to his arrival.

Property Left in Open.

"I found nothing had been done to take care of the properties and valuable machinery was left uncovered to the weather," he said. On his own responsibility he took steps to save as much of it as was possible. His "guess' at its value was between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000. He also asserted that equipment, ordered previous to the closing of the plant, was still coming to the shipyard. He tried to have it stopped.

"They told me to keep my hands off and let the machinery come," he declared.

Another instance of equipment exposed to the weather was given by the witness was at the Terry shipyard. He valued the equipment there at $1,500,000. The steward service of the board was gone into by S. I. Ackerman. He told of alleged unsatisfactory methods of making purchases of supplies for shipping board vessels in foreign ports, particularly at Newcastle, England. Bologna, he said cost the board more than veal.

HOOVER CALLED IN BY LABOR LEADERS FOR CONFERENCE

Says Blame Not all on Employers for Conditions

CHANGED CONDITIONS WILL CHANGE POLICY

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Herbert Hoover was called into conference today by the executive council of the American Federation of Labor as it continued discussion of economic and industrial conditions presumably to frame a policy to be followed in legislation urged on congress. Mr. Hoover was invited it was explained, because of his wide knowledge of economic and industrial conditions. It was indicated also that the council obtained from him data gathered by eminent engineers on questions pertaining to or affecting labor.

Members in the meeting behind closed doors were disinclined to talk. There was evidence, however, Mr. Hoover's views did not place all blame for conditions confronting labor on employers. Much data has been gathered by the federation on economic conditions. It is known also that in today's conference some members of the council, while holding employers largely responsible for conditions admitted individual and even groups of workers had not "played fair" in some instances.

Mr. Hoover was understood to have declared labor must do its share in the elimination of industrial faults and ills. It is understood Mr. Hoover was told labor leaders regarded the action of some employers in closing plants or operating on part time as "little short of a social crime."

With this view however, he was said not to have agreed, explaining he believed other conditions affected plant operation more than labor leaders realized. He pointed to credit conditions, the slackening of demand and other related causes, it was understood.

No Forecast for Future.

Mr. Hoover made no forecast as to the future. He did say, however, he believed existing depression was temporary and that it constituted a part of the period of reconstruction.

Among labor leaders there was a suggestion that the changing conditions of which Mr. Hoover spoke would necessitate changed policies by organized workers and particularly the federation. They indicated they were attempting to reach new conclusions and reshape their policies thru study of conditions confronting them as well as the employers.

It developed that important conferences between labor officials and engineers and economists were held during the fall. The federation has been assembling the information obtained for the study now in progress.

President Gompers is understood to have said greater consideration and a better understanding must be accorded the "human element" in production if output is to be increased and waste eliminated.

The council probably will continue its discussion several days.

Sixteen Men are Trapped In Mine

Earlington, Ky., Nov. 16.—Fire near the opening of the Arnold mine one half mile east of here has entrapped sixteen men and with the conflagration growing in extent little hope is held of rescuing them.

The fire discovered late today started from defective electric wiring in a room near the opening and quickly spread. The mine is a drift mine making rescue possible only thru the opening. The fire can be heard blazing under the ground and the smoke is pouring forth.

The three white men and thirteen negroes entrapped are three miles from the entrance and it is feared that they will suffocate. Any attempt at rescue thus far had been without result and an effort is now being made to reverse the air thru the air shaft.

The mine is owned by the St. Bernard Oil company of Evansville, Ind.

At 9 o'clock when the fire had been raging almost seven hours mine offificials held little hope of rescuing the miners. It was feared they were already dead, due to suffocation.

Rescue workers, however, expersed the belief that the men might still be alive if they were able to barricade themselves against the flames and smoke and get some of the air being forced thru an emergency pipe.

All other attempts at rescuing without result, work was began at 10 o'clock to tunnel around the fire to the opening of the mine caved in, shutting off the air opening and allowing less smoke to escape from the fire making the plight of those inside more precarious.

The fire was discovered by a negro. He ran the gauntlet of the flames, and ,though nearly suffocating, reached the outside and spread the alarm. He was the only one to escape.

Making no headway, rescuers are considering sealing up the mine to smother the flames. The conflagration has progressed beyond control. Officials express little hope of finding the men alive.

Venizelos was said by Clemenceau to be the greatest figure that the world war produced. Yet Venizelos and his cabinet have been defeated in the election in Greece. Pehaps this is another bit of proof that the prophet is "not without honor save in his own country."

Many people look upon the Indian as an extinct race, yet there are 300 Indians now attending a conference in St. Louis as the representatives of at least 265,000 red men resident in the reservations of the U. WISCONSIN'S IMPORTANT WORK.

In Wisconsin there are today 314 public service nurses at work. By next July every county in the state will have a public health nurse for a law now on the statute books requires it. This progressive state is furnishing proof of its belief that the preservation of child life and health is an economic consideration. The people of Wisconsin think a lot of the boys and girls but perhaps they are also actuated by the knowledge that prevention of many ailments is much cheaper than the cure.

The records of some years hence will probably show that the counties have really saved money by the expenditures made for the health and nursing service.

URGING MR. ROOT'S APPOINTMENT

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat in a lengthy editorial expresses the hope that President-elect Harding will choose Elihu Root as secretary of state in his cabinet. Some unfriendly papers have recently attempted to show that the relations between Mr. Harding and Mr. Root are not quite friendly. It is possible for that the Globe at this time lays great emphasis upon Mr. Root's pre-eminent ability and his generally acknowledged fitness for the post. By common agreement Mr. Root is accounted as the greatest of the diplomats of the U. S.—an international lawyer whose reputation is world wide.

In view of these facts it is not likely that the president-elect will fail to take Mr. Root into account in making up the official family.

ANOTHER VIEW OF DELAYED BUYING

A large eastern manufacturing concern has issued an open letter to its customers pointing to the fallacy of further delays in buying spring goods and in the cancellation of orders. The letter goes on to show that such action by the jobbers and retailers is necessitating the closing down of factories and bringing stagnation of wholesale business.

The argument is that this condition is certain to mean a shortage later on with higher prices, so that the action will defeat its very purpose. As proof of the contention , the manufacturer points to the early days following the armistice. Then merchants stopped buying for a few months. A shortage came and there was a rush into the markets with the inevitable result that prices were boosted. There is a lot of sound reasoning in this line of argument, but it remains to be seen whether or not the dealers are convinced.

ONE OF A MILLION CASES

The manner in which the excess tax sometimes works indirect injury to business is illustrated by the experience of a saw mill owner who tried to buy some timber land. The owner of the timber land acquired title prior to 1913. If he sold it now, he would pay an excess profits tax on the difference between the value in 1913 and the value today. He was offered what the land is worth in the market today, but on figuring up what the excess profits tax would be, he found that the government would absorb so much of the price that he could not afford to sell. He declined to let the saw mill owners have the timber, the lumber manufacturer could not operate, and the lumber supply was curtailed accordingly—it diminished the demand for labor, by keeping the saw mill idle; it enhanced the price of lumber to the consumer by restricting the supply; it hindered building operations, thus lessening the demand for carpenters, and it prevented a large number of transactions that would have resulted indirectly from the employment of men in the mill and in construction.

Rippling Rhymes

Lingering Flies

The flies should all be dead when bleak November comes, but some are on my head, a-twiddling of their thumbs. And when, for some repose, I to my couch repair, they climb around my nose, and make me rise and swear. They're out of season now, and so have no excuse for camping on my brow and tickling like the deuce. In summer we expect a plague of bugs and flies; things wouldn't seem correct if none should greet our eyes; but when November brings the frost we've long desired, the buzzings and the stings of insects make us tired. The flies I'd gladly teach, if I had half a chance, that there's a time to preach, and there's a time to dance; and there's a time to fall and slumber with the dead. All things, when out of date, are trying to the soul; in summertime we hate to blow ourselves for coal. We do not love the guy who jests when jokes are wrong, nor do we like the fly that sticks around too long. Leaves have their time to fall, and roses to depart; the fly upon the wall should take this truth to heart.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

THREE GIRL SCHOOLMATES

By Ensley Moore

(Curator Illinois State Historical Society)

The passing, last week of Laura Smith Kellogg, recalls two other girls who were school mates of Laura A. Smith. The latter stayed much longer in terrestrial life, after the other two had gone to their celestial abode.

The first of these to go was Clara Robb Brown, as she was last known—daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Robb.

Maggie Gallaher Capps was the next to put on immortality. The three girls used to go to the Jacksonville Female Academy in the days before the War, when Prof. B. F. Mitchell wielded his mild and beneficent sway over that honored institution.

We, who were boys in those faraway days can never forget those beautiful and attractive maidens clad in their young womanhood.

It seems a long time, back to that Nov. 9, 1876, when the Journal said:

"Death of Mrs. Clara Robb Brown.

A very painful duty devolves upon us in recording the death of Mrs. Clara Brown, wife of Hon. William Brown, which occurred Tuesday night, near 11 o'clock."

Clara Robb gone: The bright singer whom we heard at Prof. Hillis' concerts. The graceful girl winding through the mazes of calisthences at Academy Exhibitions. The fine rider winning prizes at the County Fair.

Yes, she went so soon; so long ago, now.

Then the Journal of March 22, 1877, told of Maggie Gallaher Capps how she was "not dead but sleepeth," and that loving mother had left her little family too.

"The light has been taken from a once happy home; and several family circles deeply afflicted in the loss of Mrs. William E. Capps.

Maggie Gallaher, daughter of Rev. William Gallaher, of Jacksonville, was born on the 2nd of April, 1847, hence was just about to enter upon the thirty-first year of life, when, on Monday evening, March 20, 1877, she was called to a home in a better land.

The deecased was married to W. E. Capps, in this city, Jan. 2, 1868, a little over nine years ago and leaves to the care of her sorely bereaved husband, three children as the fruit of this happy marriage. The oldest is now eight years ofago, the youngest only two."

Pneumonia carried the young mother away * * * "The malady has been very severe from the start, so badly for sometime past her final recovery has not been considered probable. She has been sustained throughout her illness only when she realized that she must leave all her loved ones earthly ties, by a trust in her Crucified Savior, for she has long been a member of Westminster Presbyterian church, and lived an active, consistent, Christian life. Well may her husband, in this hour of his affliction, take comfort from the words of Holy Writ at the opening of this article.

The funeral services will be held at Westminster church at 2 2 p. m., today, conducted by the pastor, Rev. S. M. Morton."

Another notice, in the Journal, referring to the funeral said, in part: "So universally known throughout our city are the families of Capps and Gallaher in such high esteem was Mrs. Maggie Gallaher Capps, and so great was the sympathy for the mourning relatives in this affliction that Westminster Presbyterian church was crowded full yesterday afternoon.

The funeral services began at 2 p. m. with the singing of a beautiful anthem, "Thy Will Be Done," by a select choir Miss Kate Detrick taking the soprano solo."

And Kate Detrick went down on the Lusitania.

So now, these three schoolmates and acquaintances are met

"In that far away home of the Soul."

WHEN FOOD DOESN'T DIGEST

Give the Stomach a Rational Rest by Proper Aid, Not by Harsh Starvation Methods.—Use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

A sour stomach may indicate an acid condition that calls for an alkaline effect.

This you will get from one or two Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after a meal. Sour risings, gassiness, a heavy bloated feeling and such distress due to indigestion or dyspepsia are usually only temporary. The regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals reflects to a high degree the intelligent selection of preventative measures.

One cannot always select or inspect the quality of food to be eaten nor its method or manner of preparation. But it is possible to avoid the acidity that is so often the result. And it is a far better plan to eat without worry over what may happen, than to starve for fear it will happen. Many physicians recommend these tablets for stomach distress due to indigestion or dyspepsia.

They are sold by all druggists everywhere at 60 cents a box.—Adv.

CHICAGO STOCK SHOW

Not only for the farm woman were the features of the International Live Stock Exposition especially designed to arouse feminine interest created. Between city and country women there is a common interest. Housekeeping has been reduced to a science in recent years and is intensifying that character as time works along.

The International Live Stock Exposition at Chicago, November 27th to December 4th, will afford an unprecedented opportunity for the wives and daughters to study domestic science. Skilled demonstrators will expond the principles of that essential art, solving vexed problems associated with living cost by the introduction of modern and efficient methods into domestic culinary operations. Go and see how the cheaper cuts of meats may be prepared to create palatable dishes; investigate other phases to your mental equipment for meeting new housekeeping problems.

In recent years the "International" has rapidly developed features of absorbing interest and educational value to the mothers, wives and daughters of the American family apart from the general attractions valuable in an educational and recreative sense to both sexes.

N. R. MASON FUNERAL HELD AT WHITE HALL

Services Were Held Sunday Afternoon—White Hall Resident Dies in St. Louis—Funeral Held at White Hall Sunday.

White Hall, Nov. 16.—Funeral services over the remains of Nicholas Ransom Mason were held in the M. E. church at 1:30 o'clock Sunday under the auspices of Benevolent Lodge, I. O. O. F. The aged of the deceased was 64 years, and he was widely known. He was a native of Boston, coming to White Hall when a young man, and here he was married and reared a family of two daughters, his wife being Miss Nora Culbertson, daughter of the late David Culbertson, one of the leading stoneware manufacturers of White Hall in his day. Mr. Mason was connected with the Culbertson institution until becoming identified with the White Hall post office under Postmaster R. G. Boehm during the first McKinley administration. Mr. Mason was best known as a tenor singer, he being a member of the old Republican glee club that was noted in the campaigns of Benjamin Harrison and William McKinley, the survivors of this club being M. B. Ross and T. J. Grant. It was under the direction of Mrs. M. B. Ross, and tourned many states and distant cities. Mr. Mason has always been identified with the Methodist choir until declining health finally forced his complete relinquishment from all activities. About a year ago he was attacked with rheumatism, and his sufferings have been intense. For several months he was under treatment in a Jacksonville hospital, being brought to Roodhouse this fall to be cared for at the home of his daughters, Mrs. Perry Campbell and Mrs. Leroy Stine. He was at the home of the former when death ended his sufferings at 1:35 a. m. Thursday. Brief services were held at the Campbell home at 9:30 a. m. Saturday, and a delegation of Odd Fellows escorted the remains to White Hall, and here they remained at the D. Culbertson home until 1:30 p. m., Sunday, when the principal services were held, followed by interment in the White Hall cemetery. The discourse was delivered by Pastor J. O. Kirkpatrick. The widow and the two daughters survive, both of the latter being residents of Roodhouse.

The remains of Otha Lloyd Berthlett were brought here from St. Louis Saturday, and funeral services were held in the First Baptist church at 3 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Pastor O. A. Carmean. The age of the deceased was nearly twenty years. During the past summer he joined a carnival company at Beardstown and suffered injuries from a fall that necessitated his being taken to a nearby hospital at St. Louis, and there he died Thursday. He was a brother of Fred Berthlett, of White Hall, this being a well known family. He was a member of the Modern Woodman order, and the funeral services were in thns auspices. The interment was in the White Hall cemetery.

WINCHESTER TEAM IS VICTORIOUS TUESDAY

Football Team of High School Wins From Griggsville Team at Game Tuesday Afternoon—Other News Notes From Winchester.

Winchester, Nov. 16.—The Griggsville football team played the Winchester team Tuesday afternoon. It was a delightful winter day for the game and a large crowd assembled to witness it. School closed at 2:30 in order that the pupils might attend, and the band furnished music for the occasion. It was a very lively game and the final score was 38 to 0 in favor of Winchester.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Neat left Tuesday afternoon for San Diego, and other points in California, where they expect to spend the winter.

George Peak and son received a carload of Ford cars Tuesday.

Two airplanes passed over Winchester yesterday, traveling to the northeast.

Mrs. H. White returned Tuesday night from Hillview, where she was called by the illness of her daughter.

Glenn Dunbar, with the following high school boys, Ralph Peak, Fred O'Donnell, Albert Rutherford, Russell Dahman, Thomas Glossup, left Tuesday night for Urbana, where they expect to attend a livestock exhibition.

Social and dance in Woodman hall tonight.

OLDER BOYS CONFERENCE

It is necessary to emphasize the fact that the Older Boys Conference solicits the very best boys of every community, and requires that every boy attending the conference should be responsible to some adult leader. An unfortunate statement has been made that boys could attend this conference without properly registering. The conference is not after large numbers of boys, but wants manly boys with red blood who have the full respect of their associates.

The conference it not a curiosity sight seeing event, but its purpose is to help develop leadership and true character in the boys who attend. The choosing of delegates should be a matter of serious consideration on the part of every Sunday school superintendent and pastor.

The conference is limited to one thousand delegates this year. Saturday is the last day that application will be accepted in Chicago. However, if they reach the limit before Saturday, the late applications cannot be accepted.

Further information may be secured at the Y. M. C. A. office.

ILLINOIS PREPARING FOR OHIO SATURDAY

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 16.—Coach Zuppke is driving the Illinois football team hard in an effort to bring out a punch that has been lacking when the Orange and Blue has had opportunities to score. The inability to put the ball over when the opportunity presented itself was evident in the Chicago and Wisconsin games. Last night the squad was given a terriffic workout and this program will continue thruout the week in preparation for the deciding game with Ohio State here Saturday. By winning, Illinois will hold the conference championship by virtue of a higher percenteage than Ohio and Wisconsin. A defeat at the hands of Ohio will eliminate Illinois and give Ohio the title, besides revenge for the defeat at Ohio last year, whn Zuppke's strategy put year when Zuppke's stratgey put last minute of play.

Social and dance in Woodman hall tonight.

WEEK END GUESTS.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING TUESDAY EVENING

Miss Anna Marie Corington Became Bride of Hilding Mattson at Home of Bride's Parents Tuesday Evening—Will Reside East of the City.

The marriage of Miss Anna Marie Corrington and Hilding Mattson was solemnized at eight o'clock Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Corrington, 713 South Main stret. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. L. Pontius, pastor of Central Christian church, and was witnessed by about fifty of the relatives and friends of the young people.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Nelle Self sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly." As the bride and groom entered the parlor the wedding music from Lohengrin sounded, Miss Lillian Carter at the piano. The young people stood before an embankment of ferns as the vows were spoken.

The bride wore a handsome gown of brown broadcloth and carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served to a limited company. The parlor was handsomely decorated for the wedding event, yellow chrysanthemums and roses of the same hue being used with splendid effect. The other rooms of the home were prettily decorated with fall flowers and ferns.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Corrington and thus belongs to one of the most prominent Morgan county families. She received her education in the county schools and later attended the local high school. She is withal a young woman of charming personality and wide popularity in her home community.

Mr. Mattson has for some time been engaged in farming east of the city. During the world war he saw service in the quartermasters department of the army, and spent nine months in the overseas service. He is a graduate of the local Brown's Business College and is a successful and capable young man, highly regarded by all who know him.

Mr. and Mrs. Mattson left last night for a brief wedding trip and upon their return will be at home on a farm east of the city. Their wedded life begins under very happy auspices.

LARGE AUDIENCE ATTENDED SERVICES

Much Interest Shown in Dr. Violette's Sermon—The Lord's Unanswered Prayer,' theme for Tonight.

An intense interest marked the services at the Central Christian church last night. A large audience had assembled long before time for the meeting to begin, and the customary crowd, filling the auditorium, entered into the spirit of the singing and the sermon with enthusiasm.

Dr. Violette read from memory a portion of the Sermon on the Mount from the fifth chapter of Matthew, and followed with a message of deep spiritual power on the subject "The Life of Trust." The text of the sermon was: "Who is he that overcometh the world but he that believeth that Jesus is the son of God?'

He told of the spiritual achievements of the saints of God from Polycarp to the modern missionary, and pointed out the place of prayer and faith and service in the normal life. The definite proposals and propositions of Christianity were made matters of faith in daily life, and the call to act on genuine conviction was reasoned out as the most urgent of all things. At the close of the sermon three accepted the inviation.

Dr. Violette announced the seventeenth chapter of John for his scripture lesson tonight. His subject will be: "The Lord's Unanswered Prayer."

RHEUMATISM

A Remarkable Home Treatment Given by One Who Had It

In the spring of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Subacute Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally I found a treatment that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bedridden with rheumatism, some of them 70 to 80 years old, and the results were the same as in my own case.

I want every sufferer from such forms of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of getting rid of your rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

SCHOOL TEACHER SAYS TANLAC HAS NO EQUAL

Nervousness and Indigestion Overcome and She Has Gained Twenty Pounds in Weight, States Miss Baker

"There has been such a change in my health here lately that everybody in the neighborhood is talking about it," said Miss Nellie Baker, of 102 Liberty street, Freeport, Ill., in relating her experience with Tanlac the other day.

"Miss Baker is a popular teacher in the schools at Elena, Ill., and among other benefits derived from Tanlac she reports a gain of twenty pounds in weight.

"I am so delighted with what Tanlac has done for me," she continued, "that it gives me the greatest pleasure to tell others suffering like I did how they may get relief. I was in a badly rundown conndition for two years. My appetite left me and even the little I did manage to eat caused me to suffer terribly from indigestion.

"Sometimes my head ached day and night for days at a time. My nerves were so completely unstrung I coudn't stand the noise of peole walking across the room, and often I shut myself up in my room, away from everybody, in order to keep away from noise. There was many a night when I didn't close my eyes in sleep.

"I fell off in weight until I was hardly more than a shadow of what I had been and got so many medicines with disappointing results that I became completely discouraged. But I got so interested in reading the wonderful statement appearing in the paper about Tanlac that I decided to give it a trial, and I now see it was the best thinng I ever did.

"Since taking just a few bottles of this medicine I have a splendid appetite, and no matter what I eat I never feel a sign of indigestion. I have gained twenty pounds in weight,, am entirely free from nervousness and sleep like a child at night without waking up once.

"The truth is I am just in the best of health and feel good all the time. My friends are all the time asking me what I have been taking to make me look so much better, and of course I tell them Tanlac. I expect to praise it as long as I live."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by J. F. Shreve and Wyle Drug Co., Franklin and Waverly.—Adv.

LAYING CONCRETE FOR STATE STREET PAVING

Weather Not Cold Enough to Endanger Quality of the Work.

The work of laying the concrete foundation for the East State street pavement is in progress. Contractor Williams has a good force of men and ample equipment in use and the work is progressing satisfactorily. The weather during recent days until yesterday has been rather cool for concrete work but is not severe enough to do injury. The question as to weather it was safe to continue with the concrete foundation was a matter of informal discussion at the council meeting Monday night. It was stated then that Mayor Crabtree had talked to city authorities in Springfield with reference to work there and had also consulted severeal contractors as to their opinion. None of them believe that the weather is now severe enough to da any damage.

Street Commissioner White was of the same opinion and so is Alderman Chapin, who is quite familiar with work of this kind. Mr. Chapin said that the Illinois Steel Bridge Co., had only in the course of the last few days stopped concrete work on a building in Minneapolis, where the weather is of course very much colder than it is here.

One thing is certain, the inspector of the street and the city authorities will watch the East State street job and at any time weather endangers the quality of the work operations will stop. For that matter, it is to the interest of the contractor himself to do that very thing. After the concrete foundation has been laid it is a very easy matter to tell if it has been damaged by frost and the appearance of such damage would mean that he would be compelled to renew the work without cost.

As a precaution against freezing the contractor is covering the concrete work with a coat of sand each day. This serves as a blanket of protection.

MAKING GOOD ON OLD OBLIGATION

Dr. Charles E. Scott has reason for believing that even the very oldest accounts have some value. Recently he received a letter from Springfield from Michael Murphy, enclosing a check for $6. The letter simply stated that this was the amount of the writer's indebtedness to Dr. Scott's father, James Scott, and that the account is of about 45 years' standing. No further explanation was received, altho the recipient would be interested in knowing just the circumstances.

Quite frequently business men receive payments of this kind altho the cases on record are very few where the obligation was contracted so long ago. The fact seems to be that most people at heart are honest and really intend to at some time or other pay their honest debts.

SOME FACTS ABOUT THE RED CROSS IN JACKSONVILLE

During the past year the Red Cross has operated along two definite lines; Home Service, the work with the ex-service men and their families; and Child Welfare, the work with children of pre-school age. At the present time the Red Cross is the only agency covering these much needed fields of activity. The Red Cross Home Service Department since last November has rendered some form of assistance to more than 700 men in Morgan county. This service which has been given free has been to aid them in securing compensation for disabilities; to help get government allotment, government insurance, back pay, travel pay, Victory buttons, $60 bonuses, recording discharge papers; locating missing men, and in assisting men in securing vocational training. Home Service cases involve a great amount of detailed work in the filling out of the Red Cross forms, giving information concerning a man's service record, his employment, his family, etc., and securing all of the necessary affidavits. Twenty-five per cent of these cases have been disabled ex-service men and this is the most responsible and difficult type of case.

In order that the very best service could be rendered our men, the Red Cross has employed the past two years a specially trained home service worker who is at the office every day from 9:00 until 5:00, ready to render any service that may be needed by the ex-service men or their families. Because of the nature of the Home Service Work involving many intimate problems in the lives of those who have been benefitted, the Red Cross has carried this work on without advertising, quietly day by day, and is still at the call of all ex-service men in the county.

In addition to the especially trained Home Service worker, the Red Cross has also employed since January 1st, a trained nurse whose work has been with children of pre-school age and with mothers. During this time the nurse has made nearly 500 visits to mothers and children, giving her service free, and advising or instructing, or rendering some form of nursing. During the influenza epidemic when each member of one family was ill of influenza and the youngest child is a critical stage of pneumonia, and it was impossible to get a trained nurse or anyone to go into this home, and there was no room for the child in either hospital, the Red Cross nurse made sometimes two or three visits to the home every day, assisiting the doctor by giving baths, medicine, or whatever treatment was necessary to save the child's life. The child recovered after many weeks of illness and the family were very grateful to the Red Cross for this nursing service. This is only one instance of many which could be cited showing what the Red Cross has done thru its Child Welfare Nurse.

Four clinics have been held at the Red Cross since the last Roll Call, conducted by Dr. East, and thirty-four Morgan County crippled children have been examined at these clinics, braced when necessary, or given treatment. The Red Cross loaned money to the family where it was necessary for the brace, and when the family was unable to pay the Red Cross supplied the necessary treatment and bracing. In the case of one child in the Open Air School where a cast and light treatment was necessary, the Red Cross paid for the X-Ray plates and a pair of shoes with an extension to keep the child's foot from use.

At the present time it costs the Red Cross a minimum of $300.00 to operate per month. The only persons receiving pay are the trained Home Service worker, the nurse, and the stenographer. All of the other work is carried on by volunteers, some of whom have served the Red Cross continuously thru the war up to the present time.

THEIR 28TH ANNIVERSARY

November 16, 1892 Joseph Shreve and Miss Emma Dunavan were married and took up their abode in St. Louis where they remained a year and then moved to Jacksonville where Mr. Shreve was for some years with the Carter drug store and then went to Dr. H. Lee Hatch. After the death of that gentleman he managed the store awhile for the estate and then bought it and has been in the one place ever since. For awhile he and Mr. Coover owned the two drug stores but have dissolved and Mr. Shreve is absolute owner of the west side place. His career as a business man has ever been most honorable, while in church, Sunday school and society he and his estimable wife and lovely daughter have ever been a force for good.

Two children came to bless their home, a boy, Russell, who died at the age of four and Miss Helen so well known in the city.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Shreve invited a few intimate friends and quietly celebrated the happy anniversary and the wish of a multitude of friends is that the worthy couple may live to celebrate a great many more anniversaries.

VISITORS IN CITY

A modest Ford car rolled into the city esterday and contained two gentlemen who are blowers indeed and in truth but by no means blowhards. They were Henry and Claude Miller on their way home to Eldwood, Indiana, on a visit. They are blowers in the Reading glass works at Fort Smith, Arkansas. The works shut down a short time since to remain closed till January.

The works are established there on account of the plentiful flow of natural gas and there are five factories altogether. The gentlemen here made a specialty of lamp chimneys and said each one could turn out a hundred an hour or 800 in a day. One is inclined to wonder where they all go in these days of electricity and gas.

FROM NEBRASKA

Ensley Moore returned Tuesday from a business trip to Nebraska. He left here last week, when it was comfortably warm, and landed in Omaha when the breezes were blowing hard and cold from Canada or Alaska. The trip in Wayne county required several auto rides in not overtight machines, so the climate was still more to be enjoyed.

At Wayne the visitor saw the George K. Moore family and other connections.

The change of temperature is said to have put the last touches required to the corn crop, freezing out what dampness remained, which was not much.

Wayne is an improving pretty town, some good building being done, and the business streets having been paved, although not all finished yet, this year.

Harmony Lodge No. 3 A. F. & A. M. will hold a special meeting this evening at 7 o'clock. WORK. Visiting brethren welcome.

ANDERSON LOST SUIT FOR TRESPASS

Jury Found Against Former Opera House Owner—Replevin Suit on Trial—Habeas Corpus Writs Quashed.

In the circuit court yesterday the jury which heard the evidence in the suit of L. C. and R. E. Henry against John Anderson brought in a verdict in favor of the defendant. Mr. Anderson brought suit claiming certain sums due for the alleged use by the defendant of space in the opera house building not included in the lease for the room that they are occupying. He also alleged certain damage to the property.

A jury was secured in the suit of Martin T. Cosgriff vs. W. H. Weatherford, Sheriff, and the trial will begin this morning. This is an action in which the complainant seeks to replevin an automobile now held by the sheriff. The car was seized as the result of a suit brought by D. N. James Automobile Co., against George H. Babb. It is alleged by Mr. Cosgriff that the car taken is his property.

Judge Smith several days ago heard the evidence in the habeas corpus proceeding brought in behalf of Joel Potter and Laura Hedrick, both of whom are patients at Jacksonville state hospital. The hearing in each case was continued until Tuesday and yesterday the court quashed both writs and the petitioners were remanded to the care of the managing officer of the hospital.

Another habeas corpus case pending is that of Mabel Austin. This case will attract considerable attention because the petitioner was committed to the hospital from Greene county as insane after having been acquitted on a charge of murder.

In the assumpsit suit of McNamara-Heneghan Co., vs. Al G. Barnes, the time to file replication was extended to Nov. 23.

In the assumpsit suit of Edward T. Quinn vs. Modern Woodmen of America, the demurrers to the first, sixth and seventh pleas were overruled. The demurrers were sustained as to second, third, fourth, eighth, ninth and tenth pleas and leave was given the defendant to plead by Nov. 27.

In the assumpsit of George H. Babb vs. D. N. James, motion was made by the defendant for rule on the plaintiff to file a bill of particulars.

In the appeal case of the road district No. 4 against August Englebrecht, the suit was dismissed by the complainant.

Chancery.

In the suit of Mauvaisterre Drainage and Levee district, brought by the commissioners against John Frank et al. motion was made by the complainant for an order of default against the defendant becuse of failure to answer.

In the partition suit of Anna Deters et al., vs. Lillian Deters et al., the report of the master was approved and decree for partition and the appointment of commissioners was entered.

In the divorce proceedings of Earl J. Reed brought against Leona Reed, decree for divorce was entered.

In the divorce proceedings of Elitha McGowan against Benjamin F. McGowan, the decree was approved and the cause stricken.

Reports from the different officers were read and approved. For the last Sunday of November it was announced that our pastor, Rev. T. H. Tull, will preach our annual sermon. An offering will also be taken at that time. Mrs. Charles Hopper was appointed to succeed herself as press reporter. As the corresponding secretary, recently elected, was unable to serve, it was voted that Mrs. Dora J. Lowdermilk, who has acted in that capacity, shall hold the office again this year. Miss Dorothy Cannon, a member of the Queen Esther circle, gave a very delightful reading. Mrs. Baxter reviewed in an interesting way the study book, "The Church and the Community." Mrs. Lambert spoke in her pleasing way of the charter members, referring particularly to Miss Milligan, in whose home the club was organized, and who has been termed the mother of the Household Science club. She was referred to as one, "who as age came on, was ever young in spirit and an inspiration to all around her.

Miss Powell, who never fails to please her auditors, then gave "Peg of My Heart" followed by a clever sketch, "Something in His Eye." Mrs. Robinson, with Miss McCurley as accompanist, sang in her accomplished way, "Love, I Have Sought and Won You." This was followed by "A Shadow March" and "Love at Springtime." Miss Sue Ellis, a former member of the club, was not able to be present but sent greetings. Mrs. Carter as praphetess, gave an interesting backward glance, then talked of the present and looked into the future, away up to 1955. Miss Moore played two violin numbers with musicianly excellence, Miss Mehus serving as her accompanist. This beautiful double number concluded the program.

Then all were invited to the dining room to see the Household club birthday cake with its 35 candles. It was really a beautiful cake and Mrs. Elliott received many compliments for carrying out this idea. Excellent refreshments were served, including the club cake which was cut with due ceremony. The hospitality of the hostesses, the program and all the arrangements for this occasion made it one which will ever be held in memory with pleasure by the club members.

REHEARSALS ON FOR ELK'S 1921 JOLLIES

City's Best Singing, Dancing and Dramatic Talent Included in Big Cast.

Rehearsals for the Elks' annual show, to be staged at the Grand theater on Wedesday and Thursday nights, Nov. 24 and 25, were started last night. The first rehearsal brought together a large number of the best singing, dancing and dramatic talet in the city from which a cast of fifty will be selected.

The show is called "The Jollies of 1921," following up the title of last year's show, but is entirely new and different from the former production. Two acts and six scenes are used for the presentation of the performance, each act being divided into three scenes.

While the show is of the popular revue style of entertainment, there is a thread of a plot connecting the numerous elaborate scenes. To carry out this plot a cost of fifteen principals and a chorus of twenty-four dancers will be used. In addition to the cast twenty men will be used in the short minstrel first part which comes in the last scene. The finale of the show will have the entire company on the stage.

Unusual enthusiasm was manifested by those present at the first rehearsal over the music, which is specially written for the production by Joe Bren, head of the company staging the show. The book has been written for the Bren company by James Madison of New York, a writer who has some of the biggest successes now playing the best vaudeville circuits to his credit.

The scenery, all of which is specially made for the production, will be of an elaborate nature. Some of the scenes shown will include a desert island in the Pacific a department store, a Spanish bull ring and a country club.

The advance rehearsals are under the direction of George L. Stevens. Advance tickets are now being sold by Elks. These tickets must be exchanged for reserved seats at the opening of the seat sale.

JOS. CHAMBERS,

CHANGES DISCUSSED BY BUREAU MEMBERS

Proposed changes in the constitution of the Morgan County Farm Bureau, having to do with the election of members of the executive committee and township chairmen, were discussed at a meeting Tuesday morning at the office of County Agent George B. Kendall. Participating in the discussion were Charles S. Black of the Bureau; G. A. Leach, Albert Crum, W. H. Crum, C. L. Hawker and O. A. Rohrer, composing a special committee. Verne Vanniman, assistant state leader of county farm advisors, was present and set forth his views.

It is proposed to revise the constitution in the method of electing these officers. Other slight changes may also be made. The special committee was appointed several weeks ago to forward the plans.

It was reported at the county agent's office today that three car loads of rock phosphate have been ordered for use on farms in this county. A. M. Masters and George Orear will receive a car each, while E. R. Hembrough and Lester A. Reed intend to "split" a car of the land food.

GERMAN LABOR IS DEMORALIZED

Berlin. — (By the Associated Press.)—A Brunswick jurist, Judge Kuleman, who for 10 years was associated with union labor as legal advisor, charges that Germn labor has been demoralized by post-revolutions conditions, and that it is now attempting in its "class egoism" to set up an oligarchy under which existence for the non-laboring classes would be intolerable. The description "free workmen," he declares, has come to mean a man who has no respect for law or order but who in fact believes he is a law unto himself, owing allegiance neither to the state nor to his own organization.

MORE GUARANTEES TO RUSH DRAINAGE PLAN

350 Guarantors Obtained for Big Project—150 More Names Needed.

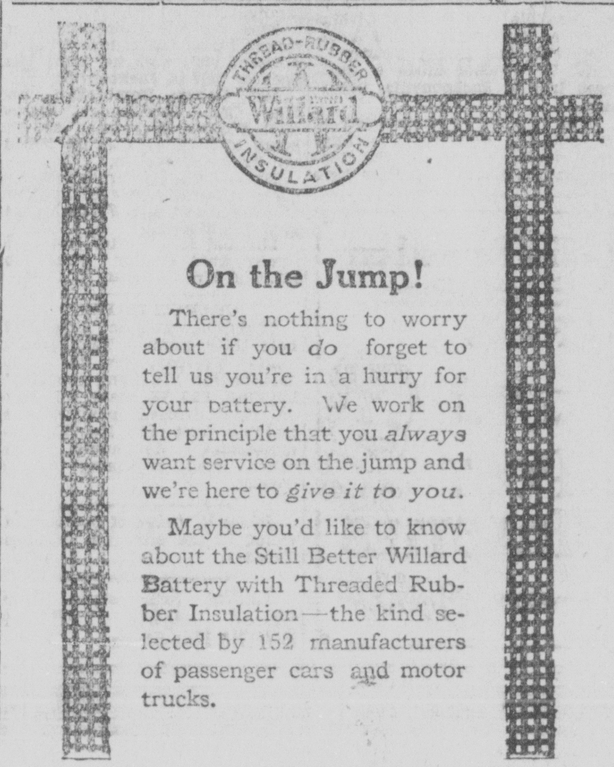

Three hundred and fifty citizens of Jacksonville have backed the proposed community drainage district with their signatures, it was stated today by F. J. Waddell, chairman of the citizens' sewer committee, when asked regarding the progress of circulation of guarantees. Within the next week or two the number of guarantors is expected to be swelled to five hundred.

Details of this work were explained sometime ago, at the time more than a score of business men pledged their efforts to the project. They have made a partial canvass of the business district, requesting citizens to guarantee $25 each for preliminary expenses connected with the organization of a drainage district.

However, there are several hundred citizens known to be interested in the plans who have not been asked to sign guarantees and during the next few days the aides of the sewer committee will redouble their efforts.

The prompt response of the three hundred and fifty citizens demonstrates the willingness of the community at large to get behind such a movement. When one hundred and fifty more signatures are obtained first legal steps will be taken to organize the district.

Crude Oil and the Automobile

IN 1913 (when there were 1,009,000 automobiles in the United States) oil producers drilled about 25,000 wells. The average paid for crude was 95c per barrel.

In 1914 producers had a little discouragement. The price for crude oil fell off to 81c average, and they drilled only 23,000 wells. These wells, however, proved exceptionally prolific and crude prices dropped to an average of 64c a barrel (40c in the Mid-Continent field). As a consequence of the over-production, the bottom dropped out of the gasoline market and low prices prevailed.

The low prices of crude made exploration of new fields unprofitable, and in 1915 only 14,000 wells were drilled. This halt in production enabled demand to creep up on supply, and caused crude to advance until it reached $1.10 per barrel.

Encouraged by the better prices offered, producers put down 24,000 wells in 1916. The unprecedented demand aroused by the war caused petroleum prices to soar, and, notwithstanding the activities in the producing field, prices have continued to advance because demand exceeded supply.

In August, 1920, the number of new oil wells brought in for that month alone was 3,513—the highest oil production mark in the history of the United States. Yet so great was demand that Mid-Continent crude stood firm at $3.50, and Pennsylvania crude at $6.10 per barrel, the present prevailing prices.

The market price for crude is not apt to go off appreciably while demand continues to increase as during 1920.

Since 1913 the number of motor vehicles in the United States has increased approximately 7,459,607, and the forecast for 1921 is 10 million motor vehicles in the United States.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is straining every fibre and sinew of its highly specialized organization to increase the yield of gasoline from crude petroleum.

How well it is succeeding is indicated by the fact that an eminent authority states that the Burton process, originating in the laboratories of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has produced 40 million barrels of gasoline from heavy distillates, and has thus saved approximately 150 million barrels of crude oil that would otherwise have been necessary to produce an equivalent amount of gasoline.

Daily Market Report

WHEAT VALUES LIFTED TUESDAY

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—European buying, actual and prospective, did much today to lift wheat values. The finish, although unsettled, was 1¾ to 4c net higher, with December $1.87¾ and March $1.77½ to $1.77¾. Corn closed ¼c net lower to ⅝c advance, oats up 1 to 1⅜c and provisions varying from 30c decline to a gain of 35c.

Sales of wheat to Belgium were estimated at 1,000,000 bushels, presumably altogether Canadian-grown and there was much talk of an effort to arrange credits to enlarge exports to Germany. Bullish sentiment was also given emphasis by the smallness of the stock of wheat here and at other western centers and by the persistent eagerness of rural offerings.

Corn and oats tended to reflect the wheat advance, but met an offset in heavy speculative selling of December corn.

For the most part, provisions were weak with hogs. November lard, tho was an exception.

STOCK MARKET BUSINESS DULL

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Business in stocks today was small and contracted in comparison with recent feverish activity, but the undertone showed greater firmness on the further elimination of weakened accounts.

Much of the stability was ascribed to sentimental influences created by the brisk foreign exchange and fulfillment of yesterday's promise of easier money.

Demand bills on London rose 7¾c to the pound over last week's minimum and exchange on Paris also improved.

Call money held at 8 per cent the lowest initial rate of the week but nominal amounts were offered unofficially, according to reports at yesterday's low tone of 7 per cent in the last hour. The cheaper motor shares and several food products and equipments again proved vulnerable to pressure, but a majority of the potential leaders were notably higher or unchanged. Sales 775,000 shres.

Home market reported additional concessions in leading commodities, including a cut in refined sugar to below 10 cents.

Liberty bonds and most other domestic issues were irregular on smaller offerings the international group, however, manifesting a better trend with foreign exchange. Total sales par value $14,000,000.

INVESTIGATE LEISURE TIME ACTIVITIES

Recreation Committee of Red Cross Survey Seeks to Know How School Children of County Spent Leisure Hours.

Among the committees serving in the Red Cross survey now being made in Morgan county is that on recreation. F. J. Heinl is chairman of this committee, and under his direction the work is being carried on in a thoro way.

Questionnaires are being sent to all children in the fifth and seventh grades and in the high school, and the answers to the questions will form the basis of statistics to be compiled later. It is the expectation that from the information thus gained it will be possible to materially raise the standard of the leisure time activities of the young people of the community. The committee has had the co-operation of the principals and teachers of the various schools and this has been of great assistance.

Parents of children who are called upon to fill these questionnaires should understand that the information is sought with the thought of improving the general condtions surrounding the lives of children.

Among the questions asked are: how do you entertain your favorite forms of indoor recreation? Outdoor recreation? To what social clubs or organizations do you belong? Do you like to read? If so, name two books which you have read during the past year which you liked very much.

What musical instruments have you in your home? Do you take music lessons? Have you a phonograph at home If so, name six records which you have that you like best.

How many times have you gone to the movies during the past week? What did you see? Who are your favorite actors? What occupied your time last Friday afternoon and Saturday and Saturday evening?

The questionnaires are sent to children in the grades indicated thruout the county and the facts when compiled will cover the entire county.

AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION NOTES.

Voice in Stock Yards Ownership

The State Farm Bureaus of middle West have asked the Department of Justice not to accept any proposal of the present owners of the stock yards in regard to change of ownership until the farmers live stock marketing committee of fifteen has had an opportunity to study the situation and state intelligently the position of live stock production.

Producers have not been consulted by the Department of Justice. When present negotiations are effected, the ownership will probably remain the same for many years. The Illinois Agricultural Association says it is a question which vitally concerns producers and feels that organized agriculture should be given a chance to express itself.

Farmers Plan National Wool Pool.

The wool committee of the American Farm Bureau, consisting of one man from each wool growing State is formulating definite plans whereby all of the State pools can be sold through one agency. The committee recommended that a secretary or manager be employed to devote his full time to undertake this werk.

A sub-committee will urge a protective tariff on raw wools and will urge Congress to pass the Truth in Fabric Bill which requires manufacturers to label cloth, telling just what amount of virgin wool and shoddy it contains. W. C. Coffey of the College of Agriculture represents the Illinois Agricultural Association wool pool on the committee.

Stabilized Supply of Fertilizer

The operation of the big nitrate plant built by the Government for war purposes at Muscle Shoals, Alabama, has a very direct relation of the soil fertility problems of Illinois farmers. This is the opinion of soil fertility experts from over the State who met at the Illinois Agricultural Association offices in Chicago to make a study of the Wadsworth Kahn Bill which is on the senate calendar.

The possibilities of the plant are greatest in the production of commercial nitrogen fertilizer from the air by means of electrical furnaces. The United States has no home supply of commercial nitrogen and it is the most important element of soil fertility. It was the concensus of the meeting that it is just as much the business of the Government to operate this plant for the good of agriculture as it was to build the fifteen million dollar Roosevelt dam in Arizona for irrigation purposes.

Farm bureaus are creating a demand for nitrogen fertilizer many timess greater than in the past, and the demand is greater than the supply which the farmers argue means that Government operation would not infringe upon commercial business. It is believed that Government operation of this plant would stabilize teh supply and price of nitrogen fertilizers and thus insure a steadier and more permanent agriculture.

Mason County Bankers Back Farmers.

Members of the Mason County Bankers Association at a meeting held at Easton, November 4, went on record as opposing the lowering of prices on agricultural products to a point far below the cost of production. The bankers say they are not attempting to prevent a normal reduction in price to a consistent level, but believe that the farmer is justified in expecting cost price for his production and that the welfare of agriculture is fundamental to the life of the nation.

The Young Women's Guild of Congregational church will hold a Fancy Bazaar, selling cakes and candies, at the church the afternoon of Dec. 3rd.

SKIN HEALTH ESSENTIAL TO BODILY HEALTH

It is just as necessary to keep the outside of the body protected against germs and infection as it is the inside.

Many diseases are transmitted through the pores of the skin. Many serious infections come from lack of proper skin care.

The best of skin protection is cleanliness. And cleanliness—actual, honest cleanliness—demands the use of clean, pure soap. You can't keep the skin clean and in a healthful condition when you clog the pores with impure soap.

Remmo Sterilized Toilet Soap is the purest and best Toilet Soap that can be manufactured. It is made exclusively of the purest and most excellent ingredients of greatest cleansing quality. Then these ingredients are sterilized at 198° Fahrenheit. There can be no impurities in Remmo Sterilized Toilet Soap. It cleanses the skin hygienically. Its soft, creamy lather removes all dirt, all accumulations from the pores of the skin. It leaves the skin—the surface of it down to the very depths of the pores—thoroughly clean, refreshed, invigorated. A state of cleanliness that establishes a degree of resistance against ailments that might arise through improperly cared for skin—and with it that desirable pink-and-white quality of complexion that can be acquired only through proper skin care.

Remmo Sterilized Toilet Soap is not a medicated soap—not a soap for emergency use—but an everyday toilet soap of greatest soap purity.—Adv.

FARM LAND

Present conditions easily justify the payment of 7% or more for the use of money. But it is generally believed that we will have a reduction in interest in the comnig months and years. When farm land sells at $300 the interest at 7% is $21 per acre. If money were worth only 5% the same farm could be sold for $420 and the interest still be $21 an acre. This means that with the coming of lower interest rates we are sure to see a corresponding advance in land values

Again each acre of land must feed more people in the coming years and we can hardly expect any decline in land values.

(a) I have to offer a well improved farm near Jacksonville and well located on an oiled road, $275 an acre. Possession March 1st.

(b) I have a splendid farm of 160 acres a little farther out for $250 an acre.
